

democrat, Spartanburgh County; farmer; charges against for Ku-Kluxing, 528; denies the statement of Julius Cantrell, 530; denies whipping Isham McCrary, 531; identified by Isham McCrary, 539; identified by Henry Lipscomb, 682.

Russel, James, said to be a Ku-Klux by his brother, 419; threatens Henry Lipscomb, 682.

Russell, D. S., testimony of, 1288, republican, York County; bar-keeper; describes raid on the county treasury, 1288; trial justice, 1290.

Russel, Jim, quarrels with James Gaffney, 619.

Sahms, William, testimony of, 1487, democrat, York County; subpoenaed to bring book containing constitution and by-laws of Ku-Klux, 1487; Ben Pressley, a leader of Ku-Klux, 1488.

Salaries of State officers, 769.

Sanifer, Green, whipped by Ku-Klux, 1478.

Santuck, fight at, 988, 1011.

Sapaugh charged with Ku-Kluxing, 1507, 1524.

Scaife, Sam., killed by the whites at Chester, 1583.

Scalawags, unqualified for office, (Chestnut,) 456.

Schley, P. T., connected with Oakes in sales to the State of land, 823.

School commissioners, duty and salary of, 461.

Scott, John, a white republican, molested by negroes, (Shand,) 970.

Scott, Governor, alleged charges of corruption against, 35, 57, 263.

Scott, Governor, alleged hypothecation of State bonds by, 232, 252, 253.

Scott, Governor, pardoning power as exercised by, 125, 154, 173, 177, 209, 220, 221, 236, 237, 262, 263, 270-272.

Scott, Governor, threatened impeachment of, 267, 271; arming of the negroes by, impolitic, 344; manifests a disposition to relieve the people of their grievances, 455, 457; accepts recommendations of democratic members to fill offices, 756; his pardons to convicts mainly those whose terms were about to expire, 765; monthly expenditures of the contingent fund of, 769; veto of, on bill making appropriations for legislative expenses, 773; vetoes measure relative to the Greenville Railroad, 827; appoints democrats to office, 876; takes arms away from the negroes, 970; proclamations by, 1233, 1254, 1255.

Scott, Thomas C., his statement in regard to Gabriel Cannon's threats, 781.

Screvens, J. H., makes a report in tax-payers' convention on election and suffrage laws, 493.

Scruggs, Dennis, a friend of Ku-Kluxing, 525.

Scruggs, William, gives advice to Tench Blackwell, 557.

Secession, views of Wade Hampton, 1218; people have no disposition to secede again, (Simpson), 1316; views of Wylie on, 1424.

Seibels, E. W., testimony of, 94-138. Is a native of the State and a resident of Columbia; was secretary and treasurer of the Union reform party in the last canvass; knows of no obstruction to the execution of the laws in any part of the State; were annoyed in Edgefield County, for some time after the war, by bushwhackers taking the law into their own hands; thinks the great difficulty in having peace and quiet is the maladministration of the State government, the reckless expenditure of the public money, the ignorance of officers, and the high taxes; thinks there is no antipathy at all to the National Government, or to the National troops, 94; gives operations of the land commission, 95; instances corruption of county commissioners; thinks that in nearly all the cases where parties have been visited by Ku-Klux, it is because the parties have been guilty of some outrage, 96; states case of the county treasurer of York County; states what he believes about the organization of Ku-Klux; thinks the persons who commit these outrages are all of the reform or democratic party, 97; gives the facts in the Stevens murder case, 98; gives the particulars of the shooting of Dr. Winsmith, 99, 100; his opinion that these outrages have only been committed upon men of bad character or criminals; has no doubt that they have been committed by persons in disguise riding out at night, 100; names leaders of the bushwhackers; their offenses were committed at night and in disguise, in the fall of 1865, mostly upon the blacks; accounts for the fact that these outrages have been inflicted almost invariably upon negroes and white republicans, 101; the white men took very little part in the organization of the State government; thinks there has been no public demonstration by the democratic party to express condemnation of these evils, except, perhaps, in two counties, 102; states causes that led to the organization of the "Council of Safety," and furnished copy of the constitution, 102, 103; nature, extent, and purpose of the organization, 104, 105; gives an account of a conference of leading democrats named, with the governor, 106, 107, 108; bushwhackers and Ku-Klux the same, 108; states circumstances connected with the killing of Randolph, 109; makes statement in regard to the Hell Hole Swamp purchase, 110, 111, 137, 138; purchase of the railroad from Greenville to Columbia by Government officials and others, called "the ring," and facts relative thereto, 111, 112; gives steps taken by the ring to obtain possession of the notes of the Bank of the State of South Carolina, and the provision made for their payment, 112, 113; gives facts relative to the furnishing of the house of representatives, 114; and as to the expenditures of the investigation committee of alleged election frauds in the Reid and Hope case, 115, 116; number of employes of the house of representatives, 116; rate of taxation, mode of assessment, and general system upon which taxes are levied, 116, 117, 118, 119; the squandering of the public money, the incompetency of the local boards, and the militia system, the cause of great discontent among the people, 119; many incendiary fires; speech of Jo Crews; amount appropriated for free-schools, and how spent; amount of salaries paid to State officials, 120; furnishing of committee rooms; the State officers not exculpated by the tax-payers' convention, 121; many incendiary fires by dissatisfied negroes; killing of five white men in York County by negroes; dangerous and incendiary threats made by republicans; demonstration of armed negroes in Columbia on the reception of the news of the disturbance in Laurens on election day; cause of formation of the constitution of the Council of Safety; thinks the democratic party decidedly more obstructed in the exercise of the privilege of voting than the republican; dangerous for a negro to vote anything but the republican ticket; believes that there is a systematic effort on the part of the republicans to compel all the negroes to vote the republican ticket, 122; says that the burning of Baker's establishment in Spartanburgh was a trick on his part to make out that he was in danger, and to get the insurance money; election frauds at the last election, 123; selling of painted sticks or stakes to negroes; thinks the negroes, as a class, do not know what a ballot or what voting means; whipping of Bigger in Sumter County, 124; pardon by the governor of a large number of persons convicted of larceny, house-burnings, &c.; thinks the outrages committed against colored men and republicans were mainly done by young men who have no families nor property; public sentiment of people of respectability and property has been all the time against it, 125; capital stock of the Columbia and Greenville Railroad, how owned, value of the stock, &c., 126; is satisfied that the law empowering certain persons to sell the State stock was passed after the purchase was made from the individual stockholders, 126, 127; does not know, of his own knowledge, that any officer of the State sold the State stock before he had authority of law to sell it, but states his belief thereof; the charge has been printed in the papers, and he has never heard it denied, 127; gives particulars and his opinions as to the buying up of the bills of the Bank of the State of South Carolina, and circumstances connected therewith, 128, 129, 130; thinks that what corruption there has been in the legislature was confined entirely to members of the republican party; members of the legislature remain in Columbia for fear of violence, 131; comparative operation of systems of State taxation before and since the war, 131, 132; women voting for their husbands and brothers, 132, 133; thinks the pilfering by negroes of stock was the result of want of education, 133; case of Mr. Baker carrying on mining operations, 133, 134; does not belong to any secret society; some of the Ku-Klux raids said to be got up by the republicans, 135; took an active part in favor of the rights of the negroes in his district; knows nothing of any arms received by a firm in Columbia, and distributed among democrats; has heard there were a great many outrages in Spartanburgh County, but thinks the accounts were greatly exaggerated; whipping of ten negroes there, 136; further testimony as to the sale of the State stock in the Greenville and Columbia Railroad, 137.

Setzler, George, Gentry denies advising him to renounce the republican party, 941.

Shaffer, Moses, conduct of, at an election-box, 726.

Shand, R. W., testimony of, 968; democrat, Union County; lawyer; disturbances by negroes, 968; murder of Stevens, 970; raid on the Union jail, 971, 977; habeas corpus, 971; control of the negroes, 972; penalty for leaving the plantation on work-day, 973; murder of Owens and whipping of Goings, 974; reasons for not investigating Ku-Klux outrages, 976; Ku-Klux well organized, 980; killing of Smith at the Yellow House, 981; every unmarried young man of respectability in Union a Ku-Klux, 984; Ku-Klux notice posted, 987; jury trial, 995; forced resignation of officers, 997; communication to the Charleston News, 1001; Ku-Klux orders, 1003, 1004, 1006.

Sheldon, Martin, whipped by Ku-Klux, 920.

Shell, killed by negroes, 1309.

Sherman, General, troops of in South Carolina, (Hampton,) 1231.

Shippey, Johnson, warns Henry Nuckles that the Ku-Klux will visit him, 1181.

Shooting of Faulkner, an alleged Ku-Klux, 17, 72, 73, 139-143, 163, 164.

Shooting of Fowler, Wallace, 187, 188, 199.

Shooting of Johnson, Nathaniel, 186.

Shooting of Randolph, Mr., 92, 109.

Shooting of Smith, Dr. Winn, (Dr. Winsmith) 20, 30, 99, 100, 186, 187, 199, 245, 246.

Shooting of Stevens, —, 98, 251.

Shooting of Winsmith, Dr., (Dr. Winsmith) 29, 30, 99, 100, 186, 187, 199, 245, 246.